

Department Chairs

The Department Chairs oversee and supervise programs that are similar in nature. They are available to students to assist in problem solving and support academic advisors and program directors in the advising of students, as needed.