

Vice President of Academic & Student Affairs (VPASA)

The Vice President of Academic & Student Affairs has responsibility for much of what sets the tone for students outside the classroom at the College. Admissions, Financial Aid, orientation, and student activities are some of the services for which the Vice President of Academic & Student Affairs is responsible. As an advocate for students, the Vice President of Academic & Student Affairs and staff respond to student questions, concerns, or problems and facilitate their resolution.