

Alumni Association

The River Valley Community College Alumni Association consists of active Alumni volunteers who promote the best interests of the College, work to strengthen the relationships of all alumni with one another and the College, and provide support to the College in meeting its goals. Membership in the Association is open to all recipients of a degree, diploma or certificate. Alumni interested in joining the Association should visit our website at www.rivervalley.edu.