

Use of College Name

No student, group of students, club, or any organization may use the name of the College in any form of printing, including letterheads, or any form of publicity without obtaining written permission from the President. All publicity should be cleared through the President or their designee.