

Insurance

It is highly recommended that students carry medical health insurance of some kind while attending the College. All Allied Health and Nursing students are required to have medical health insurance. Any expense incurred as a result of injury or illness while attending clinical or classes will be the responsibility of the student.