

Bookstore

The Bookstore is an online entity which serves as a center for the purchase of textbooks and equipment necessary for study. The bookstore can ship materials to any street address. Students may also choose to visit the on-ground location located at NHTI in Concord. The Bookstore is not an agent of the College and is operated by a private company under contract with the Community College System of New Hampshire.