

RADT 115R: Radiographic Positioning & Procedures I

This course is a study of the radiographic procedures as they relate to the skeletal system. Topics include positioning, exposure factors, film evaluation and related anatomy of chest, abdomen, superior and inferior extremities, and shoulder and pelvic girdle. There are positioning practical workshop components.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 2

Lecture Hours: 2

Prerequisites:

BIOL 201R

RADT 110R

RADT 132R

Courses can be pre- or co- requisite.

Program: Radiologic Technology