

Program Directors/Coordinators

Each program has a Program Director/Coordinator who oversees the program curriculum and integrity. Program Directors/Coordinators may act as or assign advisors to students within a program. They are the first point of contact for a student when problem solving or seeking guidance regarding a program of study.